Changes to the Agenda

Resident Chester Knowles announced that he had received an e-mail from a Cushing resident giving three cheers to Alton Grover's work in getting the State to fix the River Road and also applauded the fireman for the work they do.

Selectman Randy Robbins made a request for the Ordinance Committee that Chairman Alton Grover contact Maine Municipal Association to find out what statute should be cited for the Road Ordinance and Road Design and Construction Ordinance.

Chairman Alton Grover reported that he had met with CMP in regard to replacing the pole that was knocked down which is next to the Community Center. The pole out front will be removed and the power will come from the pole across the street. The mast on the side of the community center will have to be replaced with two new ones; one for telephone and cable, the other for CMP. Alton will contact an electrician to work with CMP.

Alton reported that he contacted Larry Miller and found out that there is siding left over from the recent project to fix the library end of the building. Miller and Miller gave an estimate of $4,500 to put the new clapboards on and paint what needs to be painted. Peter Haviland motioned, Kim Young seconded, to hire Miller and Miller to put up the new clapboards and paint what needs to be painted at the library end of the building for $4,500. The motion passed
